A NIGHT CELEBRATING YOU

SPONSORSHIP/MEDIA KIT 2018

This is no ordinary Black-Tie Affair

This is no ordinary Black Tie Affair, it is entertaining, groundbreaking and loaded with empowerment. It is a night of up lifting and guidance to foster your confidence, and stimulate your mind to the next level. The experience is definitely not the ordinary, but will challenge and change the way society addressed domestic violence. This momentous event will allow the light to shine on those individuals who are Advocates, Allies, Partners and Survivors, continuing their mission of service to others and thriving to ensure prevention and information is always available. Our speakers and key influencers are leaders in Entertainment, Media and TV, as well as Community Organizers and Government Officials. They all have stories of perseverance and triumph. They are game changers that are strong in faith.

Each one of these powerhouses understand the fragility of life and the value of its make up. They acknowledge and detail your achievements as well as your failures. You can be simple and complicated and in one day You use as many tools as you have learned to balance family, career, image, and inner self. Tools are the main essentials to Your survival and this event is dedicated to equip and empower You, while acknowledging those who stand behind and with them.

He was inspired to join in the fight against domestic violence, It was always Wes' goal to speak out against domestic violence and this, quite simply, was his, inspiration to do something different and not only tell his mother's story but that of his own perspective in hopes of helping saving someone else's life.

Wes' subsequent movement against domestic violence has inspired many. Wes credits Dr. Jewel Tankard for mentoring him and Dr. Sherry Blake for allowing him to grow within her team. These female powerhouses gave Wes the information to help him create a platform and evolve from intern to entrepreneur and professional he is today.

"Don't be afraid to speak out and always try to find the light in the situation. You have to find the positive because life goes on. Domestic violence and physical abuse are very real. You never know who is or has endured it." - WES
